

The air waves are for all of us. When a group decides that they can enter a political race as a partisan, then they should be subject to guidelines of any other political lobbyist.

I don't think Sinclair is capable of giving the Democratic candidate equal time. Therefore I think its program on Kerry should be cut.

Respectfully,

Betsy Wolf-Graves